

GiNconf is a user interface to configure, control and read out the device series CANlog, CANextender, GL1000, GL2000, GL3000, GL4000 and GL5300.

Read-out of configurations, measuring values and classifications from the devices, as well as data conversion in standard measurement data formats

Editing of configurations, as well as include and setup files

Project and file management

Conversion of database files (DBC)

Compiling of configurations

Downloading of the operating program and the COD file into the device

